To our valued partners:

We are very pleased to announce that we are now part of OneBeacon Insurance Group, a leading U.S. specialty insurance brand, and Intact Insurance company. With this new ownership, IB&M will continue operating as an independent broker focused on supporting your international trade customer's needs. As well, this transaction enhances OneBeacon's capabilities to provide end-to-end surety solutions to its clients and brokers. This is an exciting step for both organizations.

Going forward, we will continue to work with our other markets, along with OneBeacon. There will consequently be no direct impact to your current in-force business placed through IB&M and you are not required to take any actions or to notify your clients at this time. You will also continue to rely upon the same IB&M contacts you have been accustomed to working with over the years.

As we make this exciting change, we thank you for the opportunity to service your international trade risk management needs. We all look forward to continued growth as part of OneBeacon, and to ongoing mutual success with your organization.

Regards,
